I. INTRODUCTION

This Registration Agreement ("Agreement") between Namify Domains Inc ("Registrar", "our", "we", "us"), an ICANN (defined below) accredited Registrar, and any person accessing or using our Services ("you", "your", "Registrant") governs the access or use by you of the Services (defined below) offered through the Platform (defined below). The Platform enables you to:

- (a) register domain names;
 - (b) renew, restore and transfer your Registered Domain Names (defined below);
 - (c) manage your Account (defined below) information, billing information and orders registered under your Account;
 - (d) Privacy Protection (defined below); and
 - (e) access and subscribe to other allied services made available through the Platform;
- (collectively, "Services").

By accessing the Platform, you expressly consent and confirm that you are eligible and agree to be bound by this Agreement, which establishes a contractual relationship between you and the Registrar. If you do not agree to this Agreement, you may not access or use the Services or the Platform. You also agree to be bound by our Privacy Policy <https://namify.tech/> and any applicable additional policies, guidelines, or rules we publish or make available (collectively, "Policies"). You acknowledge that you have read, understood, and hereby agree to be bound by: (i) the Policies, (ii) ICANN's Policies (defined below), and (iii) all agreements, policies, and requirements of applicable Registry Operators (collectively, "Additional Terms").

Unless otherwise specified under this Agreement, the provisions are applicable to all TLDs that we offer. Certain TLDs may be subject to additional requirements, verification obligations, or other ICANN or registry-mandated restrictions, with the detailed obligations being set out under the applicable TLD-specific terms (<https://namify.tech/legal/tld-registry-policy>). In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and any applicable TLD-specific terms, the TLD-specific terms shall prevail solely to the extent of such conflict and only in relation to the relevant TLD.

It is important to read our entire Agreement carefully, as some of the provisions affect your legal rights.

- III.2. Our Services will enable you to create an Account (defined below) on the Platform in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Once your Account is created, you can apply to register a domain name by submitting the required information and paying the applicable Fees (defined below). We will process your request by submitting your application to the relevant Registry Operator. If the domain name you requested is available and the Registry Operator accepts the application, the domain name will be registered in your name for the Registration Term you have selected and paid for. Following this, you may host a website with the Registered Domain Name and/or use the Registered Domain Name for any lawful purposes in accordance with this Agreement and Additional Terms.

III.3. Availability of our Services.

- (a) Please note that not all products and services are available at all times, and our products and services are constantly changing, so you might see features come and go as we continue to improve our experience and services for you. We will sometimes need you to agree to special terms for certain products or features.
- (b) We do not warrant that:
- (i) the Platform will be constantly available or available at all;
 - (ii) the information on the Platform or given through Services is complete, true, accurate or non-misleading; and

(iii) that the App is secure or free of viruses, Trojans or other malware.

IV.1. For individuals using the Services. By accessing or using our Services, you represent and warrant that (a) you have full legal capacity, right and authority to agree to and be bound by this Agreement, (b) you are the age of majority in the jurisdiction from which you are accessing our Services or are the legal guardian of the person accessing such Services, (c) you are not barred or otherwise legally prohibited from accessing or using the Services, and (d) you have neither been disqualified nor been previously suspended or removed by us or any of our affiliates from availing the Services.

V. ACCOUNT CREATION

V.1. In order to avail the Services, you will be required to create an account on the Platform by providing your details, including the Registrant Data ("Account"). If you represent a legal entity, we may seek additional information regarding the organisation's business and business contact information.

V.2. You agree to provide and maintain true, accurate, and complete information about yourself as prompted on the Platform. Where you provide us with the data of any third party individual, you represent and warrant that you have provided such individual with all notices required under Applicable Law and have obtained all necessary consents for such personal data to be disclosed to and processed by us, our vendors, the applicable Registry Operator and its third party vendors and ICANN.

V.3. During the Term (defined below), we reserve the right to seek any additional information, data, or documentation (collectively, "Additional Information") that may be required to determine your eligibility to avail the Services or for your continued use of the Services. You agree to share such Additional Information promptly upon request.

You are responsible for all activities that occur under your Account. If you believe that your Account is no longer secure, notify us immediately by emailing us at compliance@namify.tech.

VI. REGISTRATION OF DOMAIN NAME

VI.1. Upon creation of the Account, you may apply for registration of a particular domain name by submitting the Registrant Data with us and paying the requisite Fees.

VI.2. You understand and agree that when you submit an application for registration of a domain name, the registration will not be effective until the Registry Operator accepts the domain registration application and registers the domain name in your name.

- VI.3. You agree that we do not guarantee the availability of any particular domain name even though its availability was indicated at the time of making the application. The Registry Operator and/or the Registrar may, in their sole discretion, accept or reject your application for any reason.
- VI.4. We shall not be responsible for errors, inaccuracies, omissions, or any other acts of the Registry Operator related to the registration of domain names.
- VI.5. All registration requests are subject to the terms of this Agreement and Additional Terms.
- VI.6. You acknowledge and agree that domain name registration is a service, and it does not create any proprietary rights until such registration is successfully completed and recorded in the Registry. Domain names are registered for a limited term that commences upon the acknowledgement of such registration by the Registry Operator and is effective either until (a) expiry of the term communicated by the Registry Operator or (b) cancellation of the Registered Domain Name by you or the Registrar, as the case may be.
- VI.7. You acknowledge and agree that the Registry Operator and/or Registrar, reserves the absolute right and discretion to deny, suspend, cancel, lock, placed on hold, delete, redirect, refuse or transfer any domain name registration. This includes the right to place any domain name(s) on registry lock, hold or similar status, as it deems necessary for any reasons including (a) to correct mistakes by the Registrar, another registrar or the Registry Operator in administering the domain name; (b) for the non-payment or non-recipient of the applicable fees; (c) to comply with specifications adopted by any industry group generally recognized as authoritative with respect to the Internet (e.g., RFCs); (d) to protect against imminent and substantial threats to the security, integrity, operation, and stability of the Registry TLD, Registry nameserver operations or the internet; (e) to ensure compliance with Applicable Laws and ICANN Policies; (f) for the resolution of disputes concerning the domain name; (h) where the Registry Operator and/or Registrar determines that the domain name was erroneously made available for registration; and/or (g) to stop or prevent any violations of any terms and conditions of this Agreement, or pursuant to a registry agreement with ICANN.
- VI.8. Permanent blocking of certain domain names. Where a domain name is suspended, disabled, or otherwise made unavailable pursuant to an order, injunction, decree, or direction of a court or other competent authority (a "Restricted Domain Name"), such Restricted Domain Name shall be permanently blocked by the us and/or Registry Operator (as applicable) and shall not be released, transferred, or returned to the general availability pool for re-registration by any person, except to the limited extent required to comply with a subsequent order or direction of a competent authority, or as otherwise required under Applicable Law.

VII. REGISTRAR OF RECORD

- VII.1. Each Registered Domain Name is sponsored by a Registrar of Record. The Registrar of Record may be us or InterNetX GmbH or any other entity as notified by us. Where InterNetX GmbH is the Registrar of Record, we act as its reseller and are not the Registrar of Record for that Registered Domain Name.
- VII.2. The Registrar of Record for each Registered Domain Name is identified in your Account and in the public registration data for that Registered Domain Name. We will confirm the identity of the Registrar of Record for any Registered Domain Name upon your request.
- VII.3. This Agreement is the registration agreement for each Registered Domain Name registered through the Platform and contains the provisions and notices required under ICANN Policies, which apply to your registration irrespective of the identity of the Registrar of Record. Your obligations under the Sections headed Your Responsibilities and Indemnity are owed to us and, where InterNetX GmbH is the Registrar of Record, to InterNetX GmbH.

VII.4. Where InterNetX GmbH is the Registrar of Record, the terms on which InterNetX GmbH provides registrar services, available at <https://www.internetx.com/en/terms-and-conditions/>, apply to that Registered Domain Name in addition to this Agreement. In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and those terms, this Agreement shall prevail, save that (a) ICANN Policies and the requirements of the applicable Registry Operator shall prevail over both; and (b) nothing in this Agreement limits any right you have, or any obligation owed to you, under ICANN Policies.

VII.5. We continue to provide account management, billing and support for all Registered Domain Names registered through the Platform and remain your primary point of contact. You may also contact the Registrar of Record directly.

VIII. RESELLERS

VIII.1. Reseller. Some domain names and related services may be purchased, provisioned, or managed through authorised resellers, channel partners, or such other third parties (each, a “Reseller”).

VIII.2. Reseller as the authorised agent. If you purchase a domain name through a Reseller, you hereby appoint and authorise that Reseller to act as your agent solely for the purpose of managing and supporting the domain name and related services, including submitting requests and receiving communications in connection with the Registered Domain Name.

Reseller Policies. Where you purchase a domain name through a Reseller, you acknowledge and agree that certain requests and actions relating to such domain name (including renewals, updates to Registration Information, and support requests) may be required to be initiated, submitted, and/or processed through the relevant Reseller in accordance with its policies.

VIII.3. Our liability. To the maximum extent permitted by law, we shall not be responsible or liable for (a) the availability, responsiveness, or acts or omissions of any Reseller; or (b) any failure by a Reseller to provide you access to any interface, control panel, credentials, or management tools.

IX. FEES, CHARGES AND TAXES

IX.1. Subject to Additional Terms, we reserve the right, in our sole discretion and from time to time, to charge such fees for the Services as we may determine (“Fees”).

IX.2. We also reserve the right to modify the Fees for registration, transfers, renewals, etc., and such changes shall become effective immediately without any need for further notice to you.

IX.3. Each domain name will have a non-uniform renewal registration pricing, and the pricing is determined at our sole discretion. We may also run certain promotional offers and provide certain domain names free of cost, subject to the relevant terms and conditions. Pricing made available to you at the time of registration of the domain name shall be final and binding for the Registration Term.

IX.4. All Fees paid by you, including for any third party services, are non-refundable. We will not refund any Fees if a domain name registration is suspended, cancelled, or transferred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may issue refunds for duplicate charges or failed transactions, strictly in accordance with our arrangements with our payment partners and any applicable Policies.

IX.5. We will process payment for the Fees through our arrangements with third-party payment processors. You may pay for Services by providing a valid credit or debit card or any other payment method accepted by us from time to time.

IX.6. All Fees are exclusive of applicable taxes (including but not limited to any service tax, value tax, or goods and services tax), and you shall be responsible for payment of all taxes in relation to the Services.

X. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

X.1. You shall

- (a) comply with the terms of this Agreement, ICANN Policies including consensus policies and the Additional Terms;

- (c) promptly correct and update the Registrant Data referred to in paragraph (b), and in any event no later than 7 (seven) days following any change during the term of the domain name registration, and shall respond within 15 (fifteen) days to any inquiry made by us concerning the accuracy, completeness or verification of the Registrant Data. You agree that your wilful provision of inaccurate Registrant Data, your failure to correct or update such Registrant Data within the period specified above, or your failure to respond within 15 (fifteen) days to any such inquiry, shall each constitute a material breach of this Agreement and may result in the suspension, cancellation, or such other action in relation to the domain name registration as may be permitted under applicable law, policy, or procedure;
- (d) where you license, lease, or otherwise permit a third party to use your Registered Domain Name, you acknowledge that you shall remain the registered name holder of record and remain fully responsible for such domain name, including for:

 - ii. providing and maintaining accurate administrative and technical contact information sufficient to facilitate the timely resolution of any issues arising in connection with the domain name; and
 - iii. accepting liability for harm caused by the wrongful use of the domain name by such third party, unless you disclose to a party providing reasonable evidence of actionable harm the then-current contact information of the user/licensee and the identity of such user/licensee within 7 (seven) days of request;
- (e) ensure that the registration of the domain name, the manner in which it is directly or indirectly used, and the User Content (defined below) does not infringe, misappropriate, or otherwise violate any third-party intellectual property or other rights; and

X.2. Trademark Registration. You may, at your sole discretion, apply to register the Registered Domain Name (or any portion thereof) as a trademark, subject to this Agreement and Additional Terms, and the requirements of the relevant trademark office in the jurisdiction where you seek registration. You acknowledge and agree that you are solely responsible for (a) determining whether the Registered Domain Name is eligible for trademark protection, (b) obtaining and maintaining any such trademark registration, and (c) ensuring that your rights and use of the Registered Domain Name and any related trademark comply with Applicable Law, and applicable ICANN Policies, including the trademark clearinghouse requirements and third-party rights. If you register the Registered Domain Name as a trademark, you are solely responsible for ensuring that (i) the domain name registration remains active during the trademark registration, or (ii) if you cease using the Registered Domain Name, including cancelling, transferring, or otherwise surrendering the Registered Domain Name, you shall take all necessary steps to update the corresponding trademark registration in accordance with the requirements of the relevant jurisdiction. You acknowledge and agree that you shall be bound by the terms and conditions of the initial launch of the applicable TLD, including, without limitation, the sunrise period and the landrush period, the procedure and process for compliance with ICANN's rights protection mechanisms, including the trademark clearinghouse requirements and any sunrise dispute resolution policy. You further acknowledge and agree that the Registry Operator and/or its service providers shall have no liability of any kind for any loss or liability resulting from the proceedings and processes relating to the sunrise period or the landrush period, including, without limitation: (a) the ability or inability of a registrant to obtain a domain name during these periods, and (b) the results of any dispute over a sunrise registration. For the avoidance of doubt, we do not provide trademark registration services and shall not be responsible for any filings made by you in relation to trademarks.

X.4. Please refer to the Registrants' Benefits and Responsibilities Specification specified by ICANN attached hereto (link) for further information.

XI. TRANSFER

XI.1. You may transfer the Registered Domain Name from the Registrar to another registrar subject to the transfer mechanism prescribed under ICANN Policies. You agree that you and the proposed acquirer shall be solely responsible for (a) ensuring that the transfer is compliant with the Additional Terms; (b) updating all relevant records reflecting the proposed transfer; and (c) making all filings required under ICANN Policies.

XI.2. You agree to provide notice, along with any other information sought by us, of the proposed transfer within 5 (five) days of completion of the proposed transfer and shall ensure that the proposed acquirer agrees to be bound by the Additional Terms.

XI.3. You shall not transfer the Registered Domain Name:

(a) to any person or entity that is owned or controlled (directly or indirectly) by a person or entity subject to, any trade, economic, or financial sanctions or embargoes administered or enforced by any governmental authority, regulator, or international body, including, without limitation, sanctions imposed by the United Nations, US Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) or the jurisdiction from which you are using the Services;

(b) within 60 (sixty) days from initial registration of the domain name;

(c) within 60 (sixty) days from transfer of the Registered Domain Name;

(d) if the Registered Domain Name has expired; or

(e) in a manner that is not in compliance with this Agreement and the Additional Terms.

XI.4. In the event you transfer the Registered Domain Name from the Registrar to another registrar, you agree that such transfer may result in an interruption, suspension, or degradation of the Services (including downtime) and we shall have no liability for any loss or damage arising from or in connection with such interruption, suspension, degradation, or downtime.

XI.5. If a Registered Domain Name becomes subject to any proceedings under the Uniform Domain-Name Dispute-Resolution Policy ("UDRP") and the Uniform Rapid Suspension System ("URS") or to any court, arbitration, or other legal or administrative proceeding, we shall act strictly in accordance with the decision, order, or direction issued by the relevant authority. In the event that you do not prevail in such a proceeding, all rights, title, and interest in and to the Registered Domain Name shall be deemed forfeited, and the Registered Domain Name shall be transferred, cancelled, suspended, or otherwise dealt with in accordance with such decision or order. We shall not be liable for any actions or omissions pursuant to such order.

XI.6. Registrar Transition. You acknowledge and agree that, in certain circumstances, including where our ICANN accreditation is suspended, terminated, or where we are otherwise unable to continue providing the Services, ICANN or the applicable Registry Operator may facilitate the transfer of the sponsorship of your domain name registration to another ICANN-accredited registrar, including by way of a bulk transfer, without requiring your further consent. You further acknowledge that, in connection with any such transition, Registrant Data may be released from escrow or otherwise disclosed to ICANN, the relevant registrar, to the extent required by applicable ICANN Policies. Any such transfer will not affect your status as the Registrant of the domain name but may result in your domain name being managed by a different registrar.

XI.7. Change of Registrar of Record. Upon renewal of a Registered Domain Name, sponsorship of that Registered Domain Name may be transferred from us to InterNetX GmbH, such that InterNetX GmbH becomes the Registrar of Record. By renewing the Registered Domain Name, whether manually or by auto-renewal, you authorise and direct such transfer of sponsorship, subject to applicable ICANN Policies and any further authorisation or requirements applicable thereunder. We will notify you in advance if InterNetX GmbH will become the Registrar of Record upon renewal and identify InterNetX GmbH as the incoming Registrar of Record. If you do not wish the Registrar of Record to change, you may, before the renewal, transfer the Registered Domain Name to another registrar in accordance with Section XI (Transfer) or allow it to expire in accordance with Section XII (Expiry). A change of the Registrar of Record does not affect your status as Registrant, the expiry date of the Registered Domain Name other than by the renewal term added, or the nameserver configuration of the Registered Domain Name

XII. EXPIRY

Each Registered Domain Name is granted for a fixed term selected by you at the time of registration ("Registration Term") and will automatically expire at the end of the Registration Term unless you renew it in accordance with these Terms. You are solely responsible for monitoring the expiry date of your Registered Domain Name and for ensuring that a renewal request is submitted and all applicable renewal fees are paid before expiry.

XIII. RENEWAL

XIII.1. You have the option to enable auto-renewal for your domain name registration by providing us with your payment information and pre-authorising the transactions on your payment instrument. Where you have chosen to avail this option, your registration will be auto renewed for the Registration Term, 32 (thirty two) days before your current registration is due to expire. Should you wish to change the Registration Term, you may manually choose to change the same.

XIII.2. Fees for renewal of Registered Domain Names shall be deducted from the card/payment instrument on file, opted for at the time of domain name registration. You are responsible for keeping your payment details accurate and up to date to prevent any interruption or loss of your Registered Domain Name. In the event we are unable to deduct the full Fees from your payment instrument, your Registered Domain Name shall expire.

XIII.3. You may choose to cancel the auto-renewal by disabling this option and removing your payment information from the Platform at any time before 33 (thirty-three) days of your current registration expiring.

XIII.4. Your registration will not be renewed automatically at the expiry of your current registration if you have not chosen the option to auto-renew or if you have chosen the option, but your Registered Domain Name is suspended for violation of this Agreement or Additional Terms or is the subject matter of a UDRP dispute.

XIII.5. If you choose to renew the Registered Domain Name manually, you understand and agree that you are solely responsible for the renewal of your Registered Domain Name prior to the expiry of your Registered Domain Name. You may renew the Registered Domain Name at any time prior to its expiry.

XIII.6. We will notify you regarding renewals as required by ICANN Policies. We have the discretion to charge dynamic Fees for the renewal of specific TLDs.

XIII.7. You acknowledge we are not responsible for errors, inaccuracies, omissions, or any other acts of the Registry Operators in connection with the renewal of the Registered Domain Name.

XIII.8. If you do not renew the registration of your Registered Domain Name before the expiry, the registration shall expire. However, we provide a grace period of 30 (thirty) days from the expiry of your registration or such other timeline prescribed by ICANN, whichever is lesser, to renew the registration of the Registered Domain Name ("Grace Period").

XIII.9. You understand and agree that the Registrars and/or Registries may charge fees related to reinstating a domain, including reinstatement after failure to renew or suspension. In order to effect a reinstatement request by you, you agree to pay fees charged by a Registry related to such reinstatement and reasonable fees that may be charged by us. Please note that not all registries list their applicable fees for domain reinstatement within their domain registration agreements and/or terms of service. Nonetheless, you acknowledge and agree to pay Registry fees, as determined in their sole discretion, in order to reinstate a domain. You further acknowledge that we have no control over a Registry's determination of fees.

XIII.10. In the event you fail to renew the Registered Domain Name within the Grace Period, you shall be provided with an additional 30 (thirty) days or any such timeline prescribed by ICANN, whichever is lesser, to renew the registration of the Registered Domain Name ("Redemption Grace Period"). In such cases, additional fees may be applicable. If the Registered Domain Name is not renewed before the expiry of the Redemption Grace Period, we are entitled to delete the Registered Domain Name within 5 (five) days thereafter, and the Registered Domain Name may be released by the Registry Operator to the public for new registration.

XIII.11. We will not be liable for any suspension, deactivation, expiration, deletion, or loss of the Registered Domain Name, or any associated data arising from or in connection with your failure to renew the Registered Domain Name within the applicable renewal period. All renewals shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Additional Terms.

XIV. PRIVACY PROTECTION

XIV.1. We offer you the ability to mask and redact your Registration Information in any public WHOIS search ("Privacy Protection").

XIV.2. If you enable Privacy Protection on our Platform, the masking will be effective once the applicable Registry's WHOIS cache is updated. Until such an update occurs, your Registration Information may remain visible in public WHOIS results despite Privacy Protection being enabled.

XIV.3. Please do note that any Fees payable for enabling and/or using Privacy Protection are non-refundable.

XIV.4. You understand that Privacy Protection be automatically disabled when your Registered Domain Name is transferred to another Registrar.

XIV.5. Your Registration Information may be revealed (a) to comply with ICANN's policies; (b) in the event of any third party claims arising as a result of your use of Privacy Protection; (c) to comply with the rules, procedures, or practices of the Registry that governs the domain name extension using Privacy Protection; (d) to prevent inappropriate activity that comes to our attention, including, without limitation, if you are using Privacy Protection to hide your involvement in illegal activities or violation of Applicable Law. Privacy Protection and similar services shall not preclude us from seeking information relating to your identity, and we may undertake know-your-customer (KYC) procedures for the purpose of verifying your identity.

XV. USAGE OF YOUR INFORMATION BY REGISTRAR

XV.1. You hereby consent to the use, collection, sharing, and processing of your personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy. You agree that we may use your information, including Registrant Data, technical data, and related information, in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

XV.2. You acknowledge we may share Registrant Information with ICANN, Registry Operators and its designees and agents, governmental authorities and such other third parties as required by ICANN or as permitted under Applicable Law or outlined in our Privacy Policy. You acknowledge that the Registrant Information must be made publicly available through WHOIS, and you acknowledge that the Registry Operators may also be required to make the Registrant Information publicly available through WHOIS.

You agree to receive all messages and emails, including transactional messages from us, any third parties and our affiliates. You understand and acknowledge that such third party services are the responsibility of the respective third party that renders such services and are subject to the terms and conditions provided by such third party. You further acknowledge that your use of such third party services is solely at your own risk. XVI.2. Our Platform includes links to other websites whose privacy practices may differ from those of the Registrar. We have no control over such third-party links present on the Platform, which are provided by persons or companies other than us.
